

Key Concepts/Features

There are four seasons in the year. Each season has different weather patterns and is at a different time in the year.

There are different types of trees and leaves. Every tree has different parts. We can see what type of tree it is by looking at the leaves.

Key Events

Hull Fair is celebrated for 10 days in October.

Diwali is celebrated on the 27th October.

Halloween is celebrated on the 31st October every year.

Bonfire Night is celebrated on the 5th November.

Key Vocabulary

Weather	What it is like outside at any given place including warmth, rain, wind, sunshine and cloudiness.
Seasons	The four parts of the year marked by the weather. They are Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter.
Celebration	The act of celebrating an important day or event.
Habitat	The natural home or environment of an animal or plant.
Hibernation	A safety measure taken by some animals to survive during colder months. A sleep like state to keep themselves safe.