- She was born on 15th April 1990.
- She was born in Paris.

As a captivating actress, inspiring female rights activist and overall amazing woman, Emma Watson lives in both New York and London. She auditioned for her first job at only nine years old!

THE HARRY POTTER FRANCHISE

Her most known role is where she plays Hermione Granger in Harry Potter, but she was not always a film star. In fact, she auditioned for the part in her school gym (it was an acting school) and when she was at the callbacks, she recognised a young girl she recognised from an ad on television and became really anxious. She actually quotes that, 'if you want something enough to practice every night for it and never give in then you will succeed, just like I did'.

Ever since that callback, no one could ever imagine Hermione being portrayed by anyone else. Her frizzy hair and caramel eyes made her perfect for the role.

Emma actually only signed a contract to act in the movies 1-4 (up until the Goblet of Fire) but decided that she would carry on right until the eighth and final movie, The Deathly Hallows Part Two!

MODELLING AND FASHION

Emma Watson began her modelling career when she had a photo shoot with teen Vogue, making her the youngest person to be on the cover of Vogue at the time! Since then she has carried on modelling at many famous events and has even introduced her own clothing line!
