

JULIA CHILD

EARLY LIFE

Julia Child was born on 15th August 1912 in Pasadena, California, in the United States. She grew up in a big house with her parents, John and Julia, and her siblings, John and Dorothy. As a child, she loved playing outdoors, climbing trees, and exploring nature. She was very tall for her age, which made her stand out from others.

HER LOVE FOR COOKING

When Julia was young, she did not spend much time in the kitchen. She only discovered her passion for cooking later in life when she lived in France. While staying in the city of Paris, she learned about French food and became fascinated by the way it was prepared. She decided to study at a famous cooking school called Le Cordon Bleu, where she learned how to make delicious dishes.

HER CAREER

After learning to cook, Julia worked hard to share her love of food with others. She wrote a famous cookbook called Mastering the Art of French Cooking, which helped people learn how to cook French food at home. She also had a television show where she showed viewers how to prepare meals step by step. Her cheerful personality and sense of humour made her very popular.

FUN FACTS ABOUT HER

Julia Child loved trying new things and was not afraid of making mistakes. She believed that cooking should be fun and that anyone could learn to do it. She was also very tall, standing at 6 feet 2 inches (1.88 metres). Her height often surprised people when they met her.

HER LEGACY

Julia Child inspired many people to try cooking and to enjoy making meals for their families and friends. Even though she passed away in 2004, her books, shows, and cheerful attitude are still remembered today.

Julia Child's life shows us that it is never too late to discover a new passion and to share it with the world.

FIND OUT MORE...

Julia Child facts for kids

EXAMPLE QUESTIONS:

1. Where and when was Julia Child born?
2. What did Julia Child discover she loved while living in France?
3. What was the name of the cooking school where Julia learned to cook?
4. Why did people enjoy Julia Child's television show?
5. What is one fun fact about Julia Child's height?