

CHARLOTTE GUILLAIN

Charlotte Guillain is an author who writes amazing books for children.

WHO IS CHARLOTTE GUILLAIN?

Charlotte is a writer who produces books for young readers. She was born in England and has written many books about science, history and the world around us.

WHAT BOOKS HAS SHE WRITTEN?

Charlotte writes both fiction and non-fiction texts. Some of books explain how things work, like The Street Beneath My Feet and The Skies Above My Eyes.

These books are quite unusual because they made up of one very long page that unfolds many times.

BOOK TITLES

Some of Charlotte's books are:

- The Deep Blue
- An Invitation to the Botanic Gardens
- The Sea Below My Toes
- What the Macaw Saw

FUN FACTS

Charlotte's husband, Adam Guillain is also a writer.

Charlotte used to live in Zanzibar, which is an island near Africa.

She enjoys visiting schools to inspire learners and help develop their vocabulary.

FIND OUT MORE...

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zxqAOWJlrx4>

EXAMPLE QUESTIONS:

1. Which country is Charlotte from?
2. Who does Charlotte write her books for?
3. Which two subjects are Charlotte's books usually about?
4. Why are some of Charlotte's book unusual?
5. Who is Adam Guillain?