

CELEBRATIONS

A birthday is the anniversary of the day which you were born. Can you remember your birthday?

Marriage is when two people join together to become partners because love each other. It is symbolised by wearing wedding rings.

they

Christmas is celebrated on the 25th December. It is a Christian celebration to celebrate when baby Jesus was born.

Bonfire night is celebrated on the 5th November.

It is to remember when Guy Fawkes tried to blow up the Houses of Parliament.

Halloween is celebrated on the 31st October.

People would wear costumes and light fires to ward off ghosts.

Valentine's day is celebrated on the 14th February.

It is a romantic holiday to show people you love them. People give gifts such as cards, presents and flowers.

Chinese New Year celebrates the beginning of the Chinese calendar.

The years are named after animals.

FIND OUT MORE

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/cbeebies/shows/lets-celebrate>

EXAMPLE QUESTIONS

1. How tried to blow up the Houses of Parliament?
2. What date is Christmas Day?
3. What are the years named after in the Chinese New Year?
4. What date is Valentine's Day?
5. What month is Halloween in?