

FAITH RINGGOLD

WHO IS FAITH RINGGOLD?

Faith Ringgold is a famous artist, storyteller, and writer. She was born on 8 October 1930 in Harlem, a neighbourhood in New York City, USA. Her art tells stories about her life, history, and the world around her.

GROWING UP IN HARLEM

As a child, she loved drawing, painting, and listening to stories. Her mother was a fashion designer, and her father was a storyteller. These influences helped her develop her creative skills. Growing up in Harlem, she saw many artists and musicians who inspired her work.

MAKING ART

Faith Ringgold uses many different materials in her art, such as fabric, paint, and paper. She is best known for her story quilts. These are colourful quilts that tell stories through pictures and words. One of her most famous quilts is called Tar Beach, which is about a little girl dreaming of flying over her city.

TELLING IMPORTANT STORIES

Her work often talks about important issues, like fairness and equality. She uses her art to share stories about African American history and culture. By creating art, she helps people understand how others feel and see the world.

AN AUTHOR TOO!

Faith Ringgold is also an author. She has written books for children, including Tar Beach, based on her famous quilt. Her books are filled with beautiful pictures and meaningful stories.

WHY IS SHE SPECIAL?

Faith Ringgold is special because she inspires others with her creativity and courage. Through her art and books, she shows people how to share their stories and make the world a better place.

FIND OUT MORE...

Facts about Faith Ringgold

---

EXAMPLE QUESTIONS:

1. Where and when was Faith Ringgold born?
2. What is Faith Ringgold best known for creating?
3. What inspired Faith Ringgold's creativity when she was a child?
4. What is the story quilt Tar Beach about?
5. What topics does Faith Ringgold often explore in her art?