

KENOJUAK ASHEVAK

WHO WAS KENOJUAK ASHEVAK?

Kenojuak Ashevak was a famous artist from Canada. She was born in 1927 in the far north of Canada, in a place called Cape Dorset, which is in the Arctic. She is known for creating beautiful drawings and prints inspired by the animals and nature around her.

WHAT DID SHE MAKE?

She loved to draw pictures of animals, like owls, bears, and seals. She also liked to draw things from nature, such as the sky, the stars, and the land. Her artwork was colourful and full of life. She used bright colours like red, yellow, and blue to show the beauty of the world around her.

Her most famous artwork is a picture of an owl. The owl has big eyes and looks very special. Many people love this drawing because it shows how amazing Kenojuak's art was.

HOW DID SHE CREATE HER ART?

Kenojuak worked with a special kind of art called printmaking. This means that she would create a picture on a flat surface and then make many copies of it. She used blocks or stones to carve her designs, and then she would press them onto paper to make prints. This way, she could share her artwork with many people.

WHY IS SHE IMPORTANT?

She is an important artist because she helped show the world the beauty of the Arctic. Her art told stories of her home and her people, the Inuit. She was one of the first artists to bring Inuit art to the world, and her work has inspired many other artists.
