

GIORGIO MORANDI

EARLY LIFE

Giorgio Morandi was born on 20 July 1890 in Bologna, Italy. He grew up in a large family with three younger sisters. As a child, he enjoyed drawing and showed an early talent for art. He loved to observe everyday objects and sketch them carefully.

EDUCATION AND ART TRAINING

Giorgio studied art at the Academy of Fine Arts in Bologna. He worked hard to improve his skills, learning about different styles and techniques. Even as a student, he focused on painting simple objects like bottles, bowls, and vases. These became the main subjects of his artwork.

HIS STYLE OF PAINTING

Morandi is famous for his still life paintings. A still life is a picture of objects that do not move, such as bottles, jars, and flowers. He used soft colours and simple shapes to make his art peaceful and calm. His paintings might look simple, but they are full of detail and show his love for quiet beauty.

A QUIET LIFE

Giorgio spent most of his life in Bologna. He lived in the same house with his sisters and painted in his small studio. He did not travel much or try to become famous. Instead, he focused on his art and teaching. Many people admired his dedication to his work.

AWARDS AND LEGACY

In 1957, Giorgio won a big prize at the São Paulo Art Biennial, a famous art event. People all over the world began to appreciate his paintings. Today, his work is shown in museums and galleries, inspiring other artists with its simplicity and charm.

REMEMBERING MORANDI

Giorgio Morandi passed away on 18 June 1964, but his art lives on. His paintings remind us to find beauty in the small and simple things around us.

FIND OUT MORE...

Facts about Giorgio Morandi

EXAMPLE QUESTIONS:

1. Where was Giorgio Morandi born, and when?
2. What kind of objects did Giorgio like to paint in his still life art?
3. Why is Morandi's art described as peaceful and calm?
4. What prize did Giorgio Morandi win in 1957, and why was it important?
5. How did Giorgio Morandi spend most of his life, and what does this show about him?